

CMRA Workshop Proposed Agenda

Monday, May 29

Introduction

- 09:00-09:15 Welcome (Senior JEA Official)
- 09:15-09:30 Introduction to the IDGEC and the CMRA Oran Young
- 09:30-09:45 An Overview of the CMRA Scoping Paper Granville Sewell
- 09:45-10:30 Questions and comments from participants

10:30-10:45 Coffee Break

International and National Implications of the Kyoto Mechanisms

- 10:45-10:50 Introduction (panel chair to be determined)
- 10:50-11:05 Presentation on Kyoto Mechanisms
Presentation is to provide overview of Kyoto Mechanisms from IR perspective. Example of speaker might be Tatsuyoshi Saijo (Japan)
- 11:05-11:20 Presentation on national instruments
Presentation is to provide overview of range of national instruments from economics perspective. Example of speaker might be Catrinus Jepma (Netherlands)
- 11:20-12:00 Discussion

12:00-13:30 Lunch

The Climate Regime and Sustainable Development

- 13:30-13:35 Introduction (panel chair to be determined)
- 13:35-13:50 Presentation on Sustainable Development
Presentation would provide overview of sustainable development from economics perspective. Example of speaker might be Roger Sedjo (US) or Gary Yohe (US)
- 13:50-14:05 Presentation on Climate Regime and Sustainable Development
Presentation would provide overview of interactions between climate regime and sustainable development from IR perspective. Example of speaker might be Daniel Murdiyarso (Indonesia)
- 14:05-14:45 Discussion

CMRA Workshop - Proposed Agenda (con't)

14:45-15:00 Coffee Break

Compliance and Long-Term Implementation

15:00-15:05 Introduction (panel chair to be determined)

15:05-15:20 Presentation on compliance

Presentation would provide overview of compliance issues from legal perspective. Example of presenter might be Atiq Rahman (Bangladesh) or Jan Linehan (Australia)

15:20-15:35 Presentation on implementation

Presentation would provide overview of implementation issues from IR perspective. Example of presenter might be Michael Grubb (UK) or Joyeeta Gupta (Netherlands)

15:35-16:15 Discussion

16:15-16:30 Coffee Break

Adjustment and Learning Processes in the Climate Change Regime

16:30-16:35 Introduction (Panel chair to be determined)

16:35-16:50 Presentation on long-term decision-making frameworks

Presentation would provide overview of decision-making and adjustment processes from economics perspective. Example of presenter might be Scott Barratt (UK)

16:50-17:05 Presentation on Learning Processes

Presentation would provide overview of social learning processes from IR perspective. Examples of presenters might be Adil Najam (Pakistan) or Jill Jaeger (Germany)

17:05-17:45 Discussion

17:45-18:00 Concluding remarks (to be determined)

Banquet Dinner

CMRA Workshop - Proposed Agenda (con't)

Tuesday, May 30

Breakout Sessions for Additional Discussions and Brainstorming

- 09:00-09:15 Introduction (to be determined)
09:15-12:00 Breakout Sessions for Theme I (facilitator to be determined)
09:15-12:00 Breakout Sessions for Theme II (facilitator to be determined)

12:00-13:30 Lunch

Linkages and Organizational Issues

- 13:30-13:35 Introduction (to be determined)
13:35-13:50 Presentation on needs and constraints of Secretariat/Policy Community
Presentation would provide overview of the research needs of and practical constraints faced by the UNFCCC Secretariat and the policy community as a whole. Example of speaker might be Mukul Sanwal (UNFCCC)
13:50-14:05 Presentation on needs and constraints of Social Science Researchers
Presentation would provide overview of the research needs of and practical constraints faced by social science researchers. Examples of speaker might be Jill Jaeger (Germany) or Oran Young (US)
14:05-14:20 Presentation on needs and constraints of Natural Science Researchers
Presentation would provide overview of the research needs of and practical constraints faced by natural science researchers. Example of speaker might be Pep Canadell (Australia)
14:20-15:15 Discussion

15:15-15:30 Coffee Break

Conclusion

- 15:30-15:55 Final discussion/questions (facilitator to be determined)
15:55-16:00 Final Statements (to be determined)

16:00 End